(optional) Click the "Leave a comment" field. You can leave a public comment about your code here.

The screenshot shows the GitHub Pull Request interface. At the top, there's a section titled "Test commit #1" with the text "Here's what I have to say about my submission! Everyone else in the cohort can see this :)". Below this, there's a "Title" field. Underneath the title field, there are two tabs: "Write" and "Preview". The "Write" tab is active, showing a large text area with the placeholder text "Leave a comment". To the right of the text area, there are formatting icons: H, B, I, , , and . Below the text area, there's a dashed line with the text "Attach files by dragging & dropping, selecting or pasting them." At the bottom of the form, there's a checkbox labeled "Allow edits by maintainers" which is checked, and a green "Commit" button.
